

$$\rho_1, \rho_2, \chi_u, \delta, \alpha \quad \alpha_t = \alpha + \frac{1}{2}\lambda \cos(2\chi)\delta$$

A fixed geometric map converts a normalized representation into a low-dimensional angular address.

Concentrated routing appears only if structured representations occupy those addresses unevenly.